The Committee on Home Missions made the following report, which was received and adopted:

REPORT.

Your Committee on Home Missions beg leave to report. We, your Committee believe that this subject deserves the careful attention of this body. We are of opinion that this subject has been too much neglected by our Conferences heretofore, and we would earnestly recommend that this Conference take more active steps in procuring the services of faithful ministers to operate without the bounds of our Conference, and make known our principles where they have not yet been proclaimed. And further, we believe that no agency could be of more service to us as a Church than that of a few faithful missionaries.

Especially would we recommend the sending of missionary aid to our army to meet the wants of our brave and noble defenders, who have so long stood as a wall of steel between us and our insolent invaders, and thus show them that we care for their spiritual welfare.

Respectfully submitted,

W. D. MOFFITT, Chairman.

On motion, the ministers of Conference were requested to volunteer their services to serve, at intervals, in the army, as missionaries, whereupon all of the ministers volunteered their services.

The special Committee of all the Elders made the following report, which was received and unanimously adopted:

REPORT.

Your Committee, to whom was referred the report of the Committee on the character and standing of the ministry beg leave to report:—That we have carefully inquired into the cases before us and would recommend,

I. That Elders B. N. Hopkins and W. H. Doherty be suspended from the exercise of all ministerial functions until a regular investigation of the charges against them can take place.

II. That of the two charges preferred against Elder W. N. Bragg we consider the second only partially sustained, and therefore have nothing to recommend in reference to it. As to the first charge against the said Elder W. N. Bragg we would pronounce it fully sustained, and would, therefore, recommend that he be expelled from this Conference and his credentials demanded.

Respectfully submitted,

THOS. J. FOWLER, Chairman.

The following committee was appointed to wait on W. N. Bragg and obtain his credentials, viz: J. N. Hanning, Sol. Apple, J. W. Wellons.

Resolved, That the subjects recommended in the annual address be referred to a committee.

In accordance with the foregoing resolution, the President appointed the following a committee, J. N. Manning, J. S. Turrentine, R. G. Tinnin.

The Committee on Memoirs made the following report which was received, and, after several affecting speeches, was unanimously adopted:

REPORT.

We, your Committee on Memoirs, beg leave to report:—That the only business before us has been the case of our beloved and lamented brother, Elder Josiah McCulloch.

Bro. McCullock early became interested on the subject of his soul's salvation, and ceased not to seek until he had found the pearl of great price. Finding the Savior so precious to his own soul, he soon became anxious to declare the "unsearchable riches" of Christ to his fellow men. Acting under these impulses, he sought and obtained, about the year 1851, a license to preach the Gospel. Thus, he became a member of the North Carolina and Virginia Christian Conference. Your committee are fully persuaded that that body never received a member whose heart was purer or whose soul was fuller of that broad charity which alone can characterize us as Christians. Bro. McCulloch labored faithfully and well until his ordination to the office of an Elder, which took place some years after. His conduct in this prominent position was such as became a follower of the meek and lowly Lamb and of the pious, faithful and exemplary Christian minister.

His industry was untiring; and few have more faithfully obeyed the injunction of Scripture: "Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might" His efforts in behalf of our Home Missionary Society, and of Graham College are especially worthy of all commendation. Though the latter institution has ceased to exist, yet his labors in both these enterprises will be seen and felt long after this world and the things thereof shall have passed away.

But the ways of God are inscrutable. In the midst of his exertions for the good of his race, Bro. McCulloch was seized with that monster, consumption, which has so often brought to an untimely end the noblest and best of our land. During the progress of that lingering, and often flattering disease, though unable to preach, yet he endeavored by every means in his power to advance the interests of the church of his choice; and the good cause of the Redeemer of men.

He used, as all ought to do, every reasonable exertion to prolong that life which God had given him for good and wise purposes.—He removed from his former place of residence in Chatham county, N. C., to Mecklinburg county, where he hoped to derive benefit from the influence of a milder climate. But, alas! alas! the hand of the final enemy was upon him! He took his bed to rise no more. Having received the sacrament of the Lord's Supper at the hands of Elder Thos. J. Fowler, he fell asleep in the arms of Jesus. No more shall he languish with disease, no more shall the hectic cough of consumption convulse with agony his feeble frame! He has entered into the reward of his labors and into that "rest that remaineth unto the people of God." While we let fall the silent tear on his grave, we cannot but rejoice that he has gone home to his heavenly Father. Let us imitate his example, and follow his precepts; and while we grieve over his departure from our midst, yet we believe that we would only be accepting his counsel, could he speak to us from the realms of the Spirit land, if we close up the ranks and march forward.

For the further expression of our sentiments, we would submit the following preamble and resolutions:

WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty God, in his merciful Providence, to remove from our midst, our beloved brother, Elder Josiah McCulloch; therefore,

1. Resolved, That though we mourn deeply the loss of our dear brother, yet we are satisfied that our loss, though to us irreparable, has been to him eternal gain.

2. Resolved, That the church has lost a faithful minister, his family, a kind protector, and the community, an upright and useful citizen.

3. Resolved, That, at a suitable time, this Conference, in its own capacity, will appoint some minister to deliver a funeral sermon in memory of our departed brother.

4. Resolved, That Conference will endeavor at as early a day as practicable to erect, at its own expense, a suitable monument as feeble testimony of its regard for his many virtues.

5. Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased, and also to the "Christian Sun" for publication.

Respectfully submitted,

C. A. APPLE, Chairman.

Resolved, That the Secretary be requested to prepare the Minutes of Conference, for publication as soon as practicable and have 600 copies printed for distribution.

Your Committee on the Condition of the Country would beg leave to report: That,

Whereas, A murderous war is now raging between the Confederate States through all perils and disasters: discountenancing all treason, and every attempt at re-union with a hated, and worse than barbarous foe—that, trusting in God for the righteousness of our cause, as well as for the succor in our distress, we will stand or fall in defense of those principles for which our fathers fought, and
